ML 9/26/66.

Dear Sir:

I saw you when you appeared on the Allen Burke show and was very impressed with your work.

I then started out to find your book "Whitewash," I inquired at every available book store. finally I found it. after reading it, I felt compelled to write you. It was terrific - and I sincerely hope someday you will be rewarded for your fine efforts. You gave so much of yourself I pray more people will be aware of your fine intent. Your struggle and disappointment in trying to make the public aware of political hanky panky was a King size task, and it took a King size men to do it. May God bless you.

I am a Hairdresser in a Dept store, and service a large number of women every day. and you can be sure, every one that sits in our Salon has been told about your book and urged to read it. its a small effort to help you.

My daughter is doing Graduate work for her Masters' degree and she is trying to help your cause by spreading the news of your work at Penton State. She wouldn't read my copy. she bought her own. in that way. another book was bought. I could go on & on.

Thank you for the pleasure of reading an Honest report. I admire & respect your talents.

May I wish you the best of everything and hope your book is top seller. It is on my list.

Respectfully,

Mrs Lorie B. Moore
